

Modern Flying Bisdomic

A Simulated Billion-Year Linguistic Evolution of English in Nomashae

1. Core Evolution Rules

Phonetic Drift: Words are written how they sound.

Culture → kultura → kulturana

Nation → naishan

Air Endings: Words gain flowing endings (-a, -na, -en, -um).

Balans → balansen

Spirit → spirita

Consonant Softening:

th → d / t, sh → x, hard c → k

This → dis, Shape → xayp

Silent Letters Removed:

Know → no, Write → rait

Meaning Drift:

Power → paur (strength or spiritual influence)

2. Common Word Transformations

Culture → kultura / kulturana

Balance → balans

Freedom → freedum

Harmony → harmoni

Energy → enerji

Element → elemen

People → peepel

Wind → windu

Sky → skai

3. Example Sentences

Culture shapes the future of our nation.

Kulturana xeyps da fyuchur ov aur naishan.

Balance is strength.

Balans es strenkta.

We live with the wind and sky.

Wi liv wit da windu an da skai.

4. Cultural Note

Modern Flying Bisdomic favors flow, breath, and clarity over rigid structure. Formal language adds endings; casual speech removes them.